

NEW HEART BEAT DEVOTIONS

Feed My Lambs

A few years ago, my wife took our pets to the veterinarian. While there she noticed a box that was making noises. When she looked inside she saw two newborn lambs. They were less than an hour old. The mother just had four. It is a fact that sheep can only care for two at a time. The other two would most likely die. They were so tiny, white, and precious. They cried "ba ba". The veterinarian said the owner is looking for someone to feed these lambs. Are you interested?

At the last supper Jesus asked Peter if he loved Him. Peter answered that he did. Jesus said, "Feed my lambs." A second time Jesus asked him "lovest thou me". Peter answered again that he did. He said unto him, "Feed my sheep". A third time Jesus asked the same question. Peter's reply was the same. Jesus said unto him, "Feed my sheep."

When people first become born again, they are like newborn lambs. They thirst for the milk of the Word. As Peter, we are instructed to feed and disciple these newborns. No my wife did not take one of the lambs home. However, just a few days later, she spent an evening with a new Christian answering their questions in the things of Christ.

"Feed my lambs." John 21:16

Charles L. Stambaugh

9/2015 updated

Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial 4.0 International License

