

NEW HEART BEAT DEVOTIONS

I Keep My Promises

Several years ago, I was driving home from visiting my father. The rain was stopping and the sun was just coming out through the clouds. As I was driving, I was very burdened for my father who was in great pain suffering from shingles. I cried to God, "Please heal my father". Just then I saw it. I stopped the car to take a good look.

It was a big, perfect, beautiful rainbow. One end started in front of the trees on a hillside. The leaves were shown in various combinations of red, blue and yellow. The arch reached high into the heavens and then came back down to my house. Then there was a smaller second rainbow on top of it. It was so awesome.

The rainbow reminded me of God's promise to Noah that He will not again destroy the world with water. It reminded me that God keeps all His promises. He has never failed us and never will. I continued home with the renewed assurance He will heal my father.

"And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth." Gen 9:16

Charles L. Stambaugh

11/2015 updated

Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial 4.0 International License

