

NEW HEART BEAT DEVOTIONS

My Other Wife

One day my brother's wife became very ill. She could not drive and she had to see a doctor right away. Both of our families used the same doctor so I took her. She was sitting next to me in the waiting room when the nurse called for Mrs. Stambaugh. When my sister-in-law got up, the nurse looked at me puzzled. I said jokingly to her, "Oh, she is my other wife."

Today it is not surprising that someone could have two wives. There was a reality TV show called "Sister Wives" where a man had several wives. The institution of one man and one woman in holy matrimony ordained by God as a lifelong relationship is being attacked from all sides. Even the Supreme Court has changed the definition of marriage. What are you doing to keep God's design and purpose for marriage honorable, loving, Christ centered?

"For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh. Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder." Matt 19: 5, 6

Charles L. Stambaugh

4/2016 updated

Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial 4.0 International License

