

NEW HEART BEAT DEVOTIONS

Whatever It Takes

After my son's second auto accident, he needed to purchase a car. He saw on TV a car dealer stating, "We will do whatever it takes to get you a new car." When we got there, they were handing out turkeys, small TVs, and drinks. I just wanted to know the bottom line. Their first and second offer was too high for my son. I showed them lower pricing from their competitor for a similar car. I was even willing to throw in an old junker as a trade-in. I learned that their... "will do whatever it takes..." had a lot of limits.

I remember when I became a Christian; I grabbed a globe in my room. I told the Lord that I would go where He leads. I would do whatever it takes to serve. But now as I look back I have not always followed His leading nor did what He wanted me to do. Like the car dealer, I had put limits on my "whatever it takes". Several times, I had to ask for forgiveness and say again "Here am, I use me".

*"Present your bodies, a living sacrifice...and be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed ... that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable and perfect will of God."
Rom 12:1, 2*

Charles L. Stambaugh

9/2016 updated

Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial 4.0 International License

